MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER

Adopted: October 1, 2014

Released: October 1, 2014

By the: Chief, International Bureau, and Chief, Wireless Telecommunications Bureau

I. INTRODUCTION

1. In acting in the above-captioned proceedings, pursuant to sections 214 and 310(b) and (d) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (the “Act”),¹ the Commission placed certain conditions on the grant of the applications and related petitions for declaratory ruling due to the ownership interest in Cellco Partnership d/b/a Verizon Wireless (“Verizon Wireless”) held by Vodafone Group Plc (“Vodafone”).² On February 21, 2014, Verizon Communications Inc. (“Verizon”) acquired Vodafone’s ownership interest, and Verizon Wireless is now 100 percent owned by Verizon.³ Due to this change in its ownership, Verizon Wireless requests that the Commission remove the specific conditions concerning Vodafone's ownership interest in the above-captioned proceedings.⁴ As discussed below, we find that a material change in circumstance has occurred and that the basis for these conditions no longer exists. We thus grant the request and will remove the conditions adopted in the above-captioned proceedings related to the Vodafone ownership interest in Verizon Wireless.⁵

II. DISCUSSION

A. National Security

2. As part of its public interest review of transfer of control or assignment applications in which foreign ownership is involved, including any related requests to exceed the foreign ownership limits in section 310(b) of the Act, the Commission will consider any national security, law enforcement, foreign policy or trade policy concerns raised by the Executive Branch.⁶ In 1999, Vodafone Airtouch PLC and Bell Atlantic filed applications for transfer of control to create Verizon Wireless. Vodafone is a widely-held, publicly-traded company organized in the United Kingdom.⁷ After reviewing the transaction for national security, law enforcement, foreign policy or trade policy concerns, the Department of Defense ("DOD"), Department of Justice ("DOJ") and the Federal Bureau of Investigation ("FBI") filed jointly with Vodafone and Bell Atlantic a Petition to Adopt Conditions to Licenses and Authorizations requesting that the Commission condition grant of the transfer of control and assignment applications on Vodafone's and Bell Atlantic's compliance with a voluntary security agreement entered into by Vodafone, Bell Atlantic, DOD, DOJ and the FBI.⁸ The International and Wireless Telecommunications Bureaus granted the Petition and conditioned grant of the applications on compliance with the security agreement, dated December 14, 1999.⁹

3. In the 2008 Verizon Wireless/RCC proceeding, the Department of Homeland Security ("DHS") requested that the Commission condition the grant of the transfer of control applications and petition for declaratory ruling on the compliance of Verizon Wireless with the March 27, 2008 letter, which incorporates by reference the terms of the December 14, 1999 agreement, from Verizon Wireless to the Assistant Secretary of Policy, DHS.¹⁰ The March 27, 2008 letter conferred on DHS the same rights and benefits accorded to DOD, DOJ, and the FBI in the December 14, 1999 security agreement (DHS, DOD, DOJ and the FBI, collectively, the “USG Signatories”).¹¹ The Commission conditioned grant of the applications and declaratory ruling on compliance by Verizon Wireless with the commitments set out in the March 27, 2008 letter.¹² In the Verizon Wireless/SpectrumCo Order, the Commission conditioned the grant of the assignment applications and declaratory ruling on continued compliance with the terms of the March 27, 2008 letter.¹³

4. Verizon Wireless now requests that the conditions to comply with the terms of the March 27, 2008, letter and the December 14, 1999, security agreement be removed because Vodafone no longer holds any ownership interest in Verizon Wireless.¹⁴ The USG Signatories concur with Verizon’s request to remove these conditions and have agreed to terminate the security agreement.¹⁵ Because the basis for these conditions is no longer present given the termination of Vodafone’s ownership interest in Verizon Wireless, and the USG Signatories concur with the removal of these conditions, we grant the request and remove the requirement for Verizon Wireless to comply with the March 27, 2008, letter and December 14, 1999, security agreement.

B. Voting Trust

5. In the Verizon Wireless/Alltel proceeding, Verizon Wireless proposed to acquire Alltel Corporation, including its subsidiaries and partnerships in which Alltel had either controlling or non-controlling general partnership interests.¹⁶ Among those partnerships were three in which Alltel held minority, non-controlling general partnership interests – Illinois Valley Cellular RSA # 2-II Partnership (“Illinois Valley”), Northwest Missouri Cellular Limited Partnership (“Northwest Missouri”), and Pittsfield Cellular Telephone Company (“Pittsfield”).¹⁷ To ensure that the post-transaction foreign ownership of those partnerships, due to the Vodafone interest in Verizon Wireless, complied with the requirements of section 310(b)(3) of the Act,¹⁸ the Commission conditioned its grant of the transfer applications on Verizon Wireless placing its voting rights in those partnerships in a voting trust.¹⁹ Contemporaneously with the closing of the transaction, an executed Voting Trust Agreement appointed a trustee to exercise all of Alltel’s voting rights under the three partnership agreements.²⁰

²⁰ See Verizon April 9, 2014 Letter at 1.

6. Verizon Wireless now requests that the requirement to have the voting interests in the three partnerships, Illinois Valley, Northwest Missouri, and Pittsfield, held in a voting trust be removed because Vodafone no longer holds any ownership interest in Verizon Wireless.²¹ Because the basis for this condition is no longer present given the termination of Vodafone's ownership interest in Verizon Wireless, we grant the request and remove the requirement for Verizon Wireless to place its voting rights in those partnerships in a voting trust.

III. CONCLUSION

7. As discussed above, the Commission imposed certain conditions on Verizon Wireless due to the Vodafone ownership interest. We find that Verizon Wireless has demonstrated that a material change in circumstance has occurred that renders those conditions no longer necessary. Thus, we grant the requests of Verizon Wireless and remove the conditions related to the Vodafone ownership of Verizon Wireless from the licenses, authorizations and rulings acted on in the above-captioned proceedings.

IV. ORDERING CLAUSES

IT IS ORDERED, pursuant to sections 4(i) and (j), 214, 309, and 310 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. §§ 154(i), (j), 214, 309, 310, that the requests of Verizon Wireless to remove conditions placed on Verizon Wireless, due to the Vodafone ownership interest, set out in the Verizon Wireless/SpectrumCo Order,²² Verizon Wireless/Alltel Order,²³ Verizon Wireless/RCC Order,²⁴ and *Vodafone/Bell Atlantic Order*²⁵ ARE GRANTED to the extent discussed herein, and those conditions are removed from the licenses, authorizations and rulings acted on in those proceedings.
